AMER. NUMISM. & ARCHAEOL. SOC.
FROM BENJAMIN BETTS

408 State Street,

Brooklyn, N. Y., 15th May, 1878.

I beg respectfully to inform the Collectors of Coins, that in future in cataloguing Medals and Medalets I shall notice only Proofs and those which are poor or damaged—leaving it to be understood that all others are in satisfactory condition, requiring no qualification.

I take this opportunity of stating (for the guidance of those just beginning to collect,) that when buying Coins at Auction Sales, they should bid for each Coin separately—as a rule ALL Coins, excepting such as are catalogued as SETS*—are offered separately and* NOT as a lot, no matter how many it may contain.

Faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.

ENGLISH AND SCOTCH SILVER COINS.

693 Henry III. 1216 to 1272. Penny in fair condition

694 Edward I. 1272 to 1307. Penny with rose on the bust. Fair

695 Edward I. 1272 to 1307. Penny with rose on the bust. Trifling variety. Fair

696 Edward I. 1272 to 1307. Penny. Head in a triangle. Struck in Dublin. Rather poor

697 Edward III. 1327 to 1377. Groat, in barely fair condition

698 Henry VIII. 1509 to 1547. Very small Groat. The King seated. Rev. Arms, with letters over the shield, apparently T D. I do not find this variety in any of the plates, and it may be rare, but it is certainly not distinct

699 James I. 1603 to 1625. Half Crown. Much better than usually found, and desirable

700 Charles I. 1625 to 1649. Irish Penny, in copper. Fine and scarce. Very small

701 Charles I. 1625 to 1649. Maunday IId. and Id. Rather poor

702 Commonwealth 1649 to 1656—Shilling. But little circulated. Scarce

703 Commonwealth 1649 to 1656 Two-pence. Poor, but scarce

704 William III. 1695 to 1702. Half Crown 1698. Unusually good for the period, being barely circulated

SCOTCH COINS.

705 Alexander III. 1249 to 1285. Penny. Head and sceptre. Rev. Rex Scotorun: A cross with stars in the angles. Fine

706 Alexander III. Another. Same type. Not quite as good

707 Alexander III. Two more. do

708 James VI. of Scotland, or First of England. Silver Penny. Lion rampant. Rev. Thistle crowned. "Oppid Edinb." Barely fine. And another, similar obverse; but reverse "Oppidum Edinburgi." Poor Both scarce 2 pieces

709 Three other Edinburgh pieces, all of James, but I cannot trace more than one of the smaller coins to James VI. One Sixpence, and the others much smaller. May be called fair for the period, and I believe scarce 3 pieces

710 Do. 1602, Arms of Scotland. Rev. "Regem Jova protegit." A piece out of the border. A thistle crowned. Half dime size. Very good

711 Charles I. 1625 to 1629. Ob. XX behind the bust. Rev. Thistle crowned. Penny. Fair but bent. Scarce

712 1682 Charles II. Three pence, and five other small silver coins. Fine 6 pieces

713 1849 Hat Krajczar, 6 Kreutzer, fine; and four other small silver coins 5 pieces
